HABITAT SYSTEMS INC. – TERMS & CONDITIONS

Please note: The following terms and conditions are standard construction industry practices.

All installation prices are quoted for normal ground conditions. Habitat Systems reserves the right to renegotiate contracts if abnormal ground conditions are determined during the course of an installation. Customer is responsible for detailing all underground encumbrances one week prior to installation. Habitat is not responsible for damages incurred during installation due to incorrect or incomplete site information. All prices are based on a clear, clean, and level site, prepared to recommended space requirements. Habitat reserves the right to renegotiate contracts if additional site preparation is required, unless otherwise agreed upon in the quotation. Vehicle and heavy equipment access must be provided to job site as required. Habitat is not responsible for damage to site and surrounding area while delivering and installing material. Habitat Systems is not responsible for any charges resulting from vandalism. Installation will be provided in accordance with manufacturer's specifications and CSA standards. Habitat Systems will invoice for equipment and installation on the pre-arranged installation date. If installation is postponed, the customer will be invoiced for equipment only and this amount is payable net 30 days. The installation will be invoiced upon project completion. Pricing includes freight costs to site. Pricing is valid for 30 days, unless otherwise stated in the proposal. Terms are net 30 days from shipment of product from factory.
